Naples, Nov. 16. Laſt Wedneſday an Edict was publiſhed here, commanding all Vagabonds, and other looſe and diſorderly Perſons whatſoever, to quit this City and Kingdom within the Space of three Days, upon Pain of being condemned to work in the Gallies for five Years; which Edict has had the deſired Effect, great Numbers of idle Perſons, who were almoſt daily committing Diſorders, having quitted this City on that Account. On Saturday laſt publick Prayers were put up in all our Churches, and are to be continued for nine Days, imploring the Almighty's Protection from the Dangers the Inhabitants of this City are threatened with from the late great Eruptions of Mount Veſuvius.

Rome, Nov. 20. Since the firſt Advice we received of the Converſion of the Sovereign of the Iſland of Giloſo, one of the Molucca Iſlands, we have been informed, that that Prince had cauſed all the Idols, which had been worſhiped by his Subjects, to be either burnt or thrown into the Sea; and that he had ordered ſeveral Churches to be erected in his Dominions for the Service of the true God, and had deſired the Apoſtolical Vicar, by whom he had been inſtructed in the Truths of the Chriſtian Religion, to write to the Pope for a ſufficient Number of Eccleſiaſticks to ſerve the ſaid Churches. The Joy cauſed by this Advice had been much more laſting than it was, if we had not juſt after received a Confirmation of the diſagreeable News, that all our Miſſionaries, who were in Cochin-China, had been driven from thence, and that the Chriſtians there had ſuffered a moſt violent Perſecution.

Genoa, Nov. 20. The Captain of a Dutch Ship arrived here lately from Cadiz reports, that he met off Malaga with four Spaniſh Frigates that were cruizing there with a Deſign, as he imagined, to intercept two Ships loaden with Artillery and other warlike Stores, which the Magiſtrates of the City of Hambourg ſend as a preſent to the Emperor of Morocco.

Stockholm, Nov. 25. There is ſcarce a Day paſſes that ſome Foreign Nobleman or other Perſon of Diſtinction does not arrive here to ſee the Ceremony of their Majeſties Coronation; there are already a great Number arrived, and many more are expected. The States of this Kingdom continue their Aſſembly with all the Succeſs imaginable, and have already agreed to ſeveral Points of very great Importance.

Vienna, Nov. 27. On Wedneſday laſt their Imperial Majeſties came from their Palace at Schonbrun to this City for the Winter.

Dreſden, Nov. 29. On Saturday laſt arrived here ſeveral Barks loaden with Corn and other Goods, which had been detained for ſeveral Days paſt by the great Quantities of Ice that were floating upon the Elbe.

Ratisbon, Nov. 30. We learn from Croatia, that one Kyouk, the principal Perſon concerned in a late Inſurrection, had been broke alive upon the Wheel, ſeveral of his Accomplices hanged, and others condemned to work all their Lives at the Fortifications; and that the two Towns where the Inſurrection firſt happened, had been deprived of all their Privileges and Immunities.

Duſſeldorp, Dec. 6. Within theſe few Days paſt, ſeveral Barks, full of People from Swiſſerland, paſſed by this City, upon the Rhine, in order to embark for Nova Scotia and other Engliſh Colonies in America.

Hague, Dec. 9. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland continued To-day their Deliberations; and the Deputies of the Colleges of the Admiralty have likewiſe aſſembled for ſome Days paſt.
